WANTS SURPLUS FOR THE YOUNG WOMEN

WOULD USE ALL OVER $100,000 OF Y. W. C. A. FOR A Y. W. C. A.

GIRLS NEED A HOME

Women Would Guarantee to Raise as Much as Is Needed for the Building.

Tulsa, November 28, 1913. Tulsa Daily World.

Dear Sirs: Will you kindly print the following in your paper:

It would appear to a Tulsa woman interested in the welfare of the girls of Tulsa who are away from home, and the girls having homes here, who cannot have the advantages a Y. W. C. A. home would afford them, that it would show a much to be commended spirit if the Y. W. C. A. governors would turn over all money raised over $100,000 to a Y. W. C. A. fund for a Y. W. C. A. building.

It would be much more to the credit of all Tulsans and to the city, to have homes for both the Y. W. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A. than to have only a Y. W. C. A. building, costing $150,000.

Surely all people in Tulsa realize that the girls here need and need badly, the protection such an institution would afford them.

I applaud the Y. W. C. A. spirit, but why not make a $100,000 home answer all needs, as it certainly would do at present, and donate the sum raised over that amount to the girls and women of Tulsa with the understanding that they raise the balance needed which would give them a $100,000 Y. W. C. A. building.

ONE INTERESTED.

Vacationists Tell of Summer's Trip. Mrs. Harriet M. Sutton of South Baltimore avenue was at home quite informally Monday evening with the matrons of the Jane Addams Chautauqua Circle as her guests.

For diversion it became the duty of the various members who had spent the summer away to tell of their vacation travels. The pleasant privilege fell to Mrs. Homer Preston, Mrs. P. A. Hardman and the hostess, who spent a delightful summer traveling in the northwestern portions of the United States and in Alaska.

The evening was brought to a close with the serving of refreshments.

Tuesday Book

The members of the Tuesday Book club were guests of Mrs. C. E. Coggeshall for the first time in her pretty home, No. 412 West Sixth street yesterday afternoon, when the club's study of Italy which it had been pursuing for the past two seasons, was continued.

Interesting and amusing reminiscences of the federation were given in response to the roll call, preceding the taking up of the program as follows: Mrs. Grant Stroth at this time brought up her paper on "The Spell of Italy," left over from a previous meeting.

Mrs. W. H. Hendren who was programmed for "Manzoni's Novels" and an outline of "The Betrothed" gave instead a very full and interesting biographical sketch of the famous novelist.

The foregoing papers filled the afternoon as completely as it was impossible to accomplish all that had been allotted for the meeting.

Next week's session will also be held in Mrs. Coggeshall's home.

Mrs. Clifford T. Matthews of the Paramount apartment left last night for Columbus, O., where she will visit her parents until after the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Ames are entertaining informally at dinner today for Mr. and Mrs. George McCord of Sistersville, W. Va.

NEIGHBOR ASKED FOR INFORMATION

Which Was Promptly Disobeyed and She Lost no Time in Profit- ing Thereby.

Miami, Okla.—"One of my neighbors," says Mrs. Hannah M. Turley, of this town, "came to my house last week and said: 'Mrs. Turley, what did you take to help you so quickly?'

I told her it was just Cardui, the woman's tonic, and she said: 'I wish I looked as well as you do.' I told her if she would only get $5.00 worth of Cardui, and take it, she would. So she sent her husband to town to get the Cardui, and commenced taking it. She looked so pale and sick all the time, but is beginning to look better already.

As to how it helped me—I suffered for about 5 years, with womanly troubles, and became so weak and nervous, and would suffer such pain every month that I thought, at times, I would die. Was in such condition that I couldn't do my work half of the time, and would have awful smothering spells.

My husband bought me a full treatment of Cardui (6 bottles) and I can truthfully say that after I took the last bottle I was well. Am enjoying the best of health now, and am so thankful to Cardui."

Take Cardui for your trouble. You will never regret it. Begin today. Ask your nearest druggist.

S. D.—Write to: Ladies' Advisory Dept., Chattanooga, Tenn., for special instructions, and 4-page book, "Home Treatment for Women," sent in plain wrapper, on request.

Mrs. L. R. Canfield of No. 1215 South Edmond avenue, is entertaining the Hide-A-Wee club for this afternoon.

Mrs. Cross to Be Hostess. Mrs. Marshall L. Cross will be hostess to the matrons of the Kensington Art club, Friday afternoon at her home on South Frisco avenue.

Tuesday Bridge. Mrs. F. E. Shallenberger, who has enjoyed been a guest of the Tuesday bridge club, returned the courtesy yesterday afternoon by inviting the matrons of this congenial society to be guests in her home, in honor of the visit of her sister, Mrs. P. B. Elkins of Boston.

Very informal, the afternoon was at the same time an exceedingly delightful one in which Mrs. A. G. Hooper scored highest at bridge. Her prize was a pretty sandwich basket, and cakes were served.

Woman's Club. Dealing with subjects of special interest to women, this season, the Tulsa Woman's club could have listened to no program more "up-to-the-minute" than the one of Monday at the home of Mrs. John A. Oliphant.

Moving Pictures, Aerial Navigation and the Panama Canal, three topics which are being discussed and written about internationally were given by Mrs. Wakely, Miss Olive Riskey and Mrs. Johnson respectively.

Each in an afternoon's study it itself but all were interesting and exceptionally well given.

D. A. R. To preserve ancient relics, to perpetuate the memory of our ancestors, to mark historic trails, to instill patriotism in the children of the public schools, and other fine principles, which the daughters of the American Revolution stand, were brought out in a delightful manner by Mrs. Doris B. Howard at the meeting of Tulsa chapter yesterday morning with Mrs. A. A. Hatch on South Denver avenue.

Unfavorable to the extreme, the weather conditions of the morning were not sufficient to dampen the ardor of these patriotic matrons who assembled in the Hatch home for the December meeting of the chapter.

Mr. Clark Robinson has returned from a three-months' trip abroad and is a guest in the home of his brother and sister, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Robinson of South Cheyenne avenue.

SEVERE PAIN WITH HEMORRHOIDS

Got No Rest Nights. Had to Be Propped Up in Bed. Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment Cured in Three Weeks.

Bissell, Ala.—"I was troubled for several years with protruding hemorrhoids. They caused pain of the most severe kind and some loss of blood. They were so inflamed that the touch of anything against them was most distressing. I got no rest nights and had to have my legs and feet propped up in the bed."

"I tried all kinds of advertised cures and I was told that an operation was the only relief. I suffered untold agony. I saw the advertisement of Cuticura Soap and Ointment and sent for a sample. I tried it and then procured a box of Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment. I took the Cuticura Soap and made a solution with warm water and bathed the affected parts before applying the Cuticura Ointment. I was cured sound and well in three weeks' time. A cake of Cuticura Soap and two boxes of Cuticura Ointment accomplished what all else failed to do." (Signed) L. R. Cook, Nov. 12, 1912.

For red, rough, chapped and bleeding hands, itching, burning palms, and painful finger-ends with shapely nails, a one-night Cuticura treatment works wonders. Soak hands on retiring in hot water and Cuticura Soap. Dry, anoint with Cuticura Ointment and wear soft bandages or old, loose gloves during the night. Sample of each mailed free with 32-p. 8-1/2x10 Book. Address postcard "Cuticura, Dept. T, Boston."

Men who shave and shampoo with Cuticura Soap will find it best for skin and scalp.

The success of the Thanksgiving party sale was so pleasing to the membership that it was decided at this time to hold a similar sale just preceding the Christmas holidays.

GRANT ALLOCATION FOR PACKING PLANT

WORK ON A NEW TULSA FACTORY WILL START IN A FEW DAYS

The city commissioners yesterday morning passed a resolution granting the Tulsa packing plant right to build a $130,000 modern and sanitary packing house within the corporate limits of the city. The plant will be located along the eastern bank of the Arkansas river between the wagon bridge and the Frisco railroad bridge.

It was announced by local capitalists interested in the project that work on the new institution would start within a few days. It will be operating early next year. It will be the largest independent packing plant in the southwest. The site along the river bank has already been acquired. The plant is at present located at First and Cheyenne, and has been conducted there for several years on a small scale. Besides a number of local men that will be interested in the project, P. D. C. Ball, the wealthy St. Louis man, will be financially interested, although he will not be concerned in its active management.

The institution will be built along the most modern and sanitary lines. No offensive odors will escape from it and it will cause no discomfort to persons living in the neighborhood. Is the assurance of the men behind the proposition.

When this plant begins actual operations Tulsa will at once become the central point of the packing industry in this part of the state.

FEEL FINE! LIVER CLEAN, STOMACH SWEET, BOWELS ACTIVE—"CASCARETS" DIME A BOX

Cascarets make you feel better; they immediately cleanse and sweeten the stomach, remove the sour, undigested and fermenting food and foul gases; take the excess bile from the liver and carry off the constipated waste matter and poison from the bowels. A Cascaret tonight straightens you out by morning—a 10-cent box from any drugist keeps your stomach regulated, head clear and liver and bowels in fine condition for months. Don't forget the children.
